Puzzle Pieces Easily Seen

The large warm white work surface makes puzzle pieces easy to see and move, yet completely non-glaring, making your puzzling experience much more enjoyable!

Waterproof & Easy to Clean

Wooden puzzle boards are not waterproof, are susceptible to moisture, and can even cause deformation over time. Cleaning is a hassle. In contrast, the plastic surface is waterproof, which makes it very convenient for cleaning puzzle dust and other dirt!

Anti-slip Design

The anti-slip pads on the bottom ensure that the puzzle board stays securely in place, reducing the risk of accidental movement. Additionally, the pads act as a protective barrier between the puzzle board and the table, preventing any potential scratches to the tabletop surface.

4 Large Colorful Drawers

Four large drawers in soft Morandi colors are both elegant and modern, allowing you to organize puzzle pieces by color or section, making the puzzle-solving process more efficient.

Innovative Rotating System

Our rotating system features an innovative design that allows for easy installation and removal without any tools. The ultra-large 18-inch diameter base ensures smooth 360° rotation of your puzzle board, making your puzzling experience more enjoyable.

Quality Protective Cover

Our high-quality natural rubber mat cover does not crease or deform as easily as other cheap transparent polypropylene covers on the market, effectively protecting unfinished puzzles. No more worrying about dust or accidental spills ruining your hard work!

Easy to Store

You can place your puzzle table on any surface, such as countertops, coffee tables, or even the floor. When you need extra space for seating or dining, simply cover your puzzle with the puzzle cover, close the drawers, and store it under a couch or bed. Your puzzle will be well-stored and safely kept in just a few seconds.

Humanized Slightly Beveled Edge

Designed with ergonomics in mind, the slightly beveled edge of the puzzle board helps reduce arm strain during long puzzle sessions. Enjoy a more comfortable and enjoyable puzzle experience—perfect for puzzle enthusiasts of all ages!

★★★★★ Very Pleased! Great Quality!

I was surprised by the size of this puzzle table, in a good way. It is big enough to accommodate almost every size puzzle we would want to assemble. The table is a well-built, heavy duty, plastic construction. This substantial puzzle table should last for years. It is NOT rickety at all. I am impressed. The mat that comes with it is heavy enough to really keep the puzzle in place and not shift if say...a CAT were to walk over it...because you know a cat could not resist doing so. It may also protect the puzzle from a young human, though the best protection is under a sofa, bed, or coffee table. We are going to keep our puzzle table under our sofa. The table is low profile enough to just slide underneath. Our family has a range of ages from 11 and up, and we all plan to use this table together. I recommend this puzzle table. It is very nice!

★★★★★ Such a great item for a puzzle lover!

Reviewed in the United States on November 18, 2024

Amazon Vine Customer Review of Free Product (What's this?)

I love doing puzzles, but with a large family I don't have a designated place I can keep one going without being in the way on the table when we need to eat. When I saw this item, I was super excited to order it, and it does not disappoint. It has four pull out drawers which are pretty roomy, as well as a large working surface. This photo is a 1000 piece puzzle with a finished dimension of 26.75"x19.75" and there is plenty of room for the puzzle with a few inches to spare on the sides. It also is on a lazy susan, so it rotates. The lazy susan is removable if you don't want it. I compared prices with other similar items on Amazon, and this is in the ballpark of those so the pricing seems right in comparison. It is a bit of a splurge at $70 (at the time of ordering), but at the moment there is a $20 coupon so that brings it down a bit. Really love this and can easily pack it up and move it when we need the table. Also comes with a rubber mat to cover the pieces to keep a young child or animal from messing with it.

★★★★★ Exceeded expectations

Reviewed in the United States on November 17, 2024

From packaging to product I was wowed! The packaging is thoughtful. Box opens briefcase style for easy access to product. It's one piece the corners even were protected by corner covers. The lazy Susan is attached to the board so no installation of anything. The board itself is nice. It's not too heavy. The drawers come all the way out if you need them to. They don't just open on their own but aren't hard to open either. Love that the drawer lock mechanism isn't a physical piece to move to lock in place like other boards. The cover really takes the cake. It's weighted. It can be moved to expose just some of the puzzle. It's NICE. No other boards I've seen offer these features and quality. I was very impressed. Messaged all my puzzle friends about it. I am so glad I returned the wooden puzzle board system I initially paid $80 for. The quality wasn't there and for $80 I was super disappointed. Found this product and took a leap of faith as it didn't have reviews.

I even left a concert early to get home and get my current puzzle on the new board

Highly recommend. I'm absolutely satisfied with this product

This rotating puzzle board makes puzzling much more enjoyable. It's sturdy and rotates smoothly. the drawers make it very easy to organize and store pieces as you work. The included cover is great for temporary storage when you're taking a break from your puzzle. The hard plastic is easy to clean, too. Very pleased with this puzzle board.

This rotates and has drawers for categorizing puzzle pieces. It has a nice cover as well. I have a few different puzzle keeping options and this is the highest quality. I wish I could store puzzles horizontally, but I have not found a good solution for that. This can at least be stored under a bed to get it out of site between puzzle sessions.

Amazon Vine Customer Review of Free Product (What's this?)

I haven't even finished my first puzzle on it, and I can already tell you it's a 5-star item! It's currently $80CAD, which is pretty steep, but man is it great! The lazy Susan on the bottom is removable and a little booklet explains to take it off if you want to. Personally, I like that it spins! I haven't used that feature much yet with puzzles, but it'll be great with lots of board games so people can reach when it's their turn - like a quality scrabble set can be turned so the letters are face-up for each player on their turn. I love that it has 4 separate drawers for sorting puzzle pieces into groups to be fit together later. Before I ordered, I somehow missed the fact that it comes with a black mat to cover the pieces. This is maybe the best part! I can lay the mat over a puzzle in progress and it not only keeps the cats from knocking pieces down and making a mess, but also prices a surface to putting a board game on top while the puzzle isn't done. Makes it a multi-tasking little table!! Everything seems like durable plastic and the table is light enough I can move it around (carefully) if I'm switching from one room to another. This will definitely be used and loved in the years to come! It's already getting me back into doing puzzles.

Amazon Vine Customer Review of Free Product (What's this?)

The puzzle fanatics in the family who are earmarked to receive this as a gift are going to love this! Presently their ability to set up and store a partly built puzzle consists of a felt puzzle mat with ties. And due to their age, this isn't always a successful venture. So when I saw this board, I immediately got excited as this is a serious upgrade to the puzzle game! Being big enough for the large 1,000 piece puzzles, they should not lack for space on this. With the removable, free-moving lazy Susan base, this can be left on, as it was when received, or removed for a fixed base. I'm not certain which pleased me more about this, the size, lazy Susan, or the 4 storage drawers? I honestly think it's the drawers ★★★★★ Great Puzzle table.

Reviewed in Canada on November 24, 2024

Amazon Vine Customer Review of Free Product (What's this?)

I have never had patience for puzzles but my wife and her mother have always spent hours doing intricate puzzles. She has always wanted a puzzle board so I thought I'd give this one a try.

This is a very nice table to work on that can also store all the pieces neatly. It is very solid and well built. It includes four coloured trays that fit into the side of the table keeping all the pieces well organized. No more puzzle pieces scattered about the kitchen table. It can easily be moved when done for the day and brought back to finish at a later time.

The table top can also rotate (like a Lazy Susan) to allow easy access to different areas for much easy placement of the pieces.

And it comes with a nice cover to keep everything safe and secure when not in use.

If you are into puzzles then this table is a great addition. My wife really loves it.

Amazon Vine Customer Review of Free Product (What's this?)

What a genius puzzle board! Seriously, this rotating puzzle board is a game changer.

It's well designed and built to last from good material. It has a nice flat surface and came with a black mat. The black colour makes it so much easier on the eyes to look for pieces. It came with big 4 drawers that are removable to easily look for pieces. The face of the board has moderately high edges (like a fence) to prevent pieces from being pushed off by accident.

The turn wheel is also easily removable depending on the puzzle and preferences.

This rotating puzzle board would make for a very nice present for someone that loves to solve jigsaw puzzles all the time.

I highly recommend it!

Love this large puzzle board. It's light enough that I can carry it myself to move if necessary. The lazy Susan feature makes it so I don't need to move or stretch across the table I can just spin the board to where I want to reach. The 4 puzzle drawers allow me to store and sort pieces. Super handy. Overall this has improved my puzzle game and I'm excited for more puzzles to come.
